Arabic Stories for Language Learners - Hezi Brosh 2013-08-06

Arabic Stories for Language Learners—a language learning experience for beginner to intermediate students of the Arabic language. The traditional stories of a country are invaluable at providing insight into understanding the culture, history and language of a people. A great way to learn Arabic, the sixty-six stories found in Arabic Stories for Language Learners present the vocabulary and grammar used every day in Arabic-speaking countries. Pulled from a wide variety of sources that have been edited and simplified for learning purposes, these stories are presented in parallel Arabic and English, facilitating language learning in the classroom and via self-study. Each story is followed by a series of questions in Arabic and English to test comprehension and encourage discussion. Arabic Stories for Language Learners brings Arab culture to life colorfully and immediately. Regardless of whether or not you have a working knowledge of Arabic, this book gives readers a tantalizing introduction to the wisdom and humor of these ancient desert-dwelling peoples. The downloadable in audio helps students of Arabic improve their pronunciation and inflection, and immerses non-students into the uniquely Arabic storytelling style.

Alif Baa with DVDs - Kristen Brustad 2004

Al-Kitāb fī ta'allum al-'Arabiyya ma' 'aqrās DVD & MP3 CD - Kristen Brustad 2009
One of the distinguishing features of the Al-Kitaab program is its introduction of dialects alongside Modern Standard Arabic. In the dialogue sections of each of the four volumes and on the multimedia, students can follow the story of Maha and Khalid in the Egyptian dialect. The DVD of Levantine Videos for Al-Kitaab Arabic Language Program provides comparable dialect videos now in the Levantine dialect. Filmed entirely in Damascus, these video dialogues have been "translated" to reflect the greater Levantine language and culture and follow the parallel story of two new characters, Nasreen and Tariq. The DVD features Levantine versions of all the dialogue clips that correspond to each of the program's four volumes, from Alif Baa through Al-Kitaab Part Three. Third editions of the Al-Kitaab textbooks incorporate these videos alongside the Egyptian videos throughout. Language labs that purchase a copy of DVD of Levantine Videos for Al-Kitaab Arabic Language Program will automatically receive rights to (a) post an electronic copy of the DVD on a secure (password-protected) network for use by current students and faculty at their institution; and (b) loan the number of purchased copies to students. For other permissions, please contact the press.

Arabiyyat al-Naas (Part One) - Munther Younes 2017-07-14

'Arabiyyat al-Naas (Part One) offers a groundbreaking introduction to Arabic as it is written and spoken by native speakers. It combines a progressive and rigorous grounding in Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) – the form employed for reading, writing and formal speaking – with an innovative integration of the spoken Levantine variety used in everyday situations in Syria, Lebanon, Jordan and Palestine. Introducing the two simultaneously 'Arabiyyat al Naas (Part One) uses each in its proper context: Levantine for conversations and MSA for reading and writing activities. In this way, the course efficiently prepares students for the practical realities of learning and "living" Arabic today. Features include: 21 theme-based units covering all the core topics expected in a first-year Arabic course, such as countries, clothes, colors, family and professions a broad range of stimulating activities and exercises fostering active engagement with the course and the development of comprehension and communication skills comprehensively covers the 5 Cs: communication, culture, connections, comparisons and communities a free DVD filmed on location in Jordan, presenting over 40 videos and incorporating a wide variety of entertaining and realistic scenarios a free companion website (www.routledge.com/cw/younes) offering a wealth of additional instructor and student resources, including a teacher's guide, an introduction to the letters and sounds of Arabic (with audiovisual aid and writing demonstrations), audio recordings of songs and listening passages, video clips, sample tests, an answer key and language games clear explanations of grammatical structures and concepts as they occur in the reading and listening materials to encourage progressive learning and active interaction with the text a user-friendly and vibrant full colour text design, richly illustrated throughout with over 200 illustrations and photographs songs with simple lyrics tied to the themes of the course to help advance vocabulary acquisition and understanding of basic grammatical structures. Written by a dynamic author team and tested over a number of years at Cornell University, 'Arabiyyat al-Naas (Part One) will be an essential resource for students beginning to learn Arabic. While primarily designed for classroom use, the accessibility of the course and website also renders it highly suitable for independent study. This volume is the first in an exciting three-part series of Arabic textbooks which together provide a complete three-year undergraduate language program.

Learn Arabic Alphabet Letters Alif Baa Taa - Arabic Letters for Muslim Kids and Adults - Hadjer Kebir 2021-08-30

Learn Arabic Alphabet Letters Alif Baa Taa - Arabic Letters for Muslim Kids and Adults: Learn Alif Ba Ta Arabic Alphabet for Kids, Arabic Handwriting, Modern Standard Arabic Writing and Get Ready to Start Reading Quran. 3 Learning Objectives: Instead of learning the Alphabet, then the letter different forms (Beginning, middle and End of words) and finally the letter with different vowels. This book has them all in one place and makes it that you will move to the next letter only after you have learned this letter with its three levels. How to Write the Letter: Letter Writing step by step, pen start point to end point, with detailed presentation of the curves, directions and order from start to end. How to Pronounce the Letter: this gives the equivalent English letter with an example (for instance: م - like "M" in Mother, ر - like "R" in Red). Some Arabic letters are unique and some have no equivalent in English, for those cases we will give you an approximation to the closest English pronunciation. Example of the Letter in Words with picture, Translation and Pronunciation: on the letter first page you will be given an example word containing this particular letter. The word is given in Arabic with picture, Arabic pronunciation in English Letters to enable the learner to start reading complete words and finally the English Translation of the word. Basic Letter Form Writing Practice: Next you will have a chance to practice the very basic letter shape. Letter Shape depending on its position in words: a detailed table will introduce you to all possible forms this letter may take. Almost every letter has 3 different forms (Beginning, middle and End of words), which are close to each other and only a slight change will take place, so it is not like you will have to learn each letter three times, it is much simpler than it sounds. Letter Forms Writing Practice: After the table mentioned in the previous point, you will have a chance to practice writing these different forms of this letter. This helps you memorize them and get used to writing them. Letter With Different Vowels and Different Vowels Patterns: another detailed table will introduce you to all possible cases of writing and pronouncing this letter with different vowels and vowels patterns. For instance: ب (B): َـب Ba, ُـب Bo, ِـب Bi, ٓـب B, َـب Baa, ُـب Boo, ِـب Bee, َـب Ban, ُـب Bon, ِـب Bin, َـب Ba, ُـب Bo, ِـب Bi. Letter with Vowels Writing Practice: again after the table that introduces the concept and rules, you will have enough space to practice what you have learned so far. The pronunciation in English Letters will be given both in the table and practice space to make it easier for the learner to memorize the shape of the vowel and its effect on the letter pronunciation immediately in same practice line. Final Writing Practice without Secondary Guides: in this practice we will

remove the secondary guides and let the learner practice writing the letter with more confidence. Actually, there is no problem if the learner needs to look back at the letter with the secondary guides and try to write it at the same time. Letters Size Suitable for Kids and Adults: for the 4 years old kids and above and for adults, this letters size was chosen to be suitable for beginner learners and also not to be so big or small, that may make the learner feel uncomfortable tracing the letters and moving his/her hand. 16 Additional Blank Lined Practice Pages for more Practice Space.

Arabic as One Language - Mahmoud Al-Batal 2017-12-04

For decades, students learning the Arabic language have begun with Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) and then transitioned to learning spoken Arabic. While the MSA-first approach neither reflects the sociolinguistic reality of the language nor gives students the communicative skills required to fully function in Arabic, the field continues to debate the widespread adoption of this approach. Little research or evidence has been presented about the effectiveness of integrating dialect in the curriculum. With the recent publication of textbooks that integrate dialect in the Arabic curriculum, however, a more systematic analysis of such integration is clearly becoming necessary. In this seminal volume, Mahmoud Al-Batal gathers key scholars who have implemented integration to present data and research on the method's success. The studies address curricular models, students' outcomes, and attitudes of students and teachers using integration in their curricula. This volume is an essential resource for all teachers of Arabic language and those working in Teaching Arabic as a Foreign Language (TAFL).
