Go Set a Watchman - Harper Lee 2015-07-14
#1 New York Times
Bestseller "Go Set a Watchman is such an important book, perhaps the most important novel on race to come out of the white South in decades." – New York Times A landmark novel by Harper Lee, set two decades after her beloved Pulitzer Prize-winning masterpiece, To Kill a Mockingbird. Twenty-six-year-old Jean Louise Finch—"Scout"—returns home to Maycomb, Alabama from New York City to visit her aging father, Atticus. Set against the backdrop of the civil rights tensions and political turmoil that were transforming the South, Jean Louise's

homecoming turns bittersweet when she learns disturbing truths about her close-knit family, the town, and the people dearest to her. Memories from her childhood flood back,
and her values and assumptions are thrown into doubt. Featuring many of the iconic characters from To Kill a Mockingbird, Go Set a Watchman perfectly captures a young woman, and a world, in painful yet necessary transition out of the illusions of the past—a journey that can only be guided by one's own conscience. Written in the mid-1950s, Go Set a Watchman imparts a fuller, richer understanding and appreciation of the late Harper Lee. Here is an unforgettable novel of wisdom, humanity, passion, humor, and effortless precision—a profoundly affecting work of art that is both wonderfully evocative of another era and relevant to our own times. It not only confirms the enduring brilliance of To Kill a Mockingbird, but also serves as its essential companion, adding depth, context, and new meaning to an American classic.

Phenomenology of Religion - Mariasusai Dhavamony 1973

The object of the present work is mainly to serve as a text book for students of History of Religions or Historical Phenomenology of Religion at the University level. This book intended also for the use of those who wish to become acquainted in a systematic and critical manner with the main themes of the History of Religions, and of other persons who are either concerned in the education of youth or whose work it may be to present scientifically accurate conclusions with regard to the various subjects of the History of Religions. There exist excellent text books which treat of particular religions or which contain chapters on individual religions without studying them comparatively or phenomenologically. There are very few text books that attempt to present the main themes of the History of Religions in such a way as to explain the signification of the religious phenomena that are found in various religions by means of the historical-comparative method.

Psikologi Belajar - Afi Parnawi 2019-04-10 Belajar adalah suatu kata yang sudah akrab dengan semua lapisan masyarakat. Masalah pengertian belajar ini, para ahli psikologi dan pendidikan mengemukakan rumusan yang berlainan sesuai dengan bidang keahlian mereka masing-masing. James O. Whittaker, misalnya, merumuskan belajar sebagai proses di mana tingkah laku ditimbulkan atau diubah melalui latihan atau pengalaman. Cronbach berpendapat bahwa learning is shown by change in behavior as a result of experience. Belajar sebagai suatu aktivitas yang ditunjukkan oleh perubahan tingkah laku sebagai hasil dari pengalaman.

Seeing Islam as Others Saw It: A Survey and Evaluation of Christian, Jewish and Zoroastrian Writings on Early Islam
- Robert G. Hoyland

2014-01-10

This book offers a new approach to the vexing question of how to write the early history of Islam. The first part discusses the nature of the Muslim and non-Muslim source material for the seventh- and eighth-century Middle East and argues that by lessening the divide between these two traditions, which has largely been erected by modern scholarship, we can come to a better appreciation of this crucial period. The second part gives a detailed survey of sources and an analysis of some 120 non-Muslim texts, all of which provide information about the first century and a half of Islam (roughly A.D. 620-780). The third part furnishes examples, according to the approach suggested in the first part and with the material presented in the second part, how one might write the history of this time. The fourth part takes the form of excurses on various topics, such as the process of Islamization, the phenomenon of conversion to Islam, the development of techniques for determining the direction of prayer, and the conquest of Egypt. Because this work views Islamic history with the aid of non-Muslim texts and assesses the latter in the light of Muslim writings, it will be essential reading for historians of Islam, Christianity, Judaism, or Zoroastrianism-- indeed, for all those with an interest in cultures of the eastern Mediterranean in its traditional phase from Late Antiquity to medieval times.

Buku ini menggambarkan makna dan berbagai persoalan yang terjadi di sekitar kedewasaan, ditinjau dari perspektif psikologi Islami menurut Abdullah Nasih Ulwan. Semoga buku ini dapat memberikan wawasan yang luas dan dijadikan bahan rujukan, diskusi, dan pengembangan pemahaman mengenai kedewasaan, khususnya bagi mahasiswa maupun bagi para pembaca secara umum.
