Caroline Whitmore is cunning, inconsiderate, and ruthless. Despite that, I can't recall a day that's gone by when I haven't thought about her at least once. On paper, we're a perfect match--Only on paper. In real life, we're a disaster. She hates me. Hates the way I dress--everything I say. My basic existence. But what I hate is more complicated. I hate every guy that gets too close. And that one of them gets to stay. I hate that I want her so bad that I used my best friend to make her jealous. But most of all, I hate that Caroline Whitmore is the one that got away.

Christmas.
