SPANISH REVIEW for CHRISTIANS - Bill Dooley 2019-07-24

SPANISH REVIEW for CHRISTIANS: A Streamlined Review of Vocabulary and Structure by Bill Dooley 288 pages, black & white (2019) Spanish Review for Christians is a review grammar text which is Christian in content, featuring clear explanations in English, vocabulary development, oral and written activities, familiar memory passages, and helpful supplements. With Spanish Review for Christians, readers can refresh and strengthen their Spanish skills within a Christian context. Students who already have advanced skills can use the vocabulary and patterns in this book as they learn how to preach, teach, and evangelize in Spanish. Professor Dooley provides a brief but thorough review of all the important structures of the language. Clear explanations are given, along with practice activities and answer keys. Spanish Review for Christians is designed for either self-study or use in a class/group setting. A unique feature of Spanish Review for Christians is the use of verses from seven popular versions of the Spanish New Testament to provide the basis for all of the examples and exercises. Every chapter begins with a clear explanation in English of a practical grammar topic, with appropriate examples taken straight from the Spanish Bible. Careful translations of these verses help the student understand each structural principle. The sentences used in the brief fill-in-the-blank exercises and in the familiar memory verses were also taken directly from the Nuevo Testamento. In addition, each chapter of the book includes a favorite Salmo (Psalm), which provides additional examples of the structural points being studied and serves as an excellent passage for oral reading, whether individual or choral. There is also a step-by-step introduction to praying in Spanish. Throughout the book there is systematic development of basic vocabulary, plus the biblical terms essential for ministry to Spanish-speakers. Each chapter has a bilingual word list in a convenient two-column format, and there are two end glossaries, English-Spanish and Spanish-English. Also at the back of the book are verb charts, answer keys, and other helpful supplements. Another unique feature of Spanish Review for Christians is what the author calls "Building Blocks." These oral exercises train the student to memorize useful structures and use them in many different contexts by changing a word or two. Building Blocks can help students express themselves in oral or written Spanish, and even compose simple sermons or Bible teachings. Mastery of these structures can be instrumental in building one's confidence in speaking Spanish. "This text is just the right tool to equip you for work in the Kingdom among our Spanish-speaking friends." Michael D. Thomas, Ph.D., Baylor University

About the Author: Bill Dooley is a born-again Christian who lives in the Dallas area with his wife, Eva. Bill holds a B.A. degree in Spanish and French from Angelo State University, and an M.A. in Foreign Language Education from the University of Texas at Austin. In 2001 he was awarded the Diploma superior de español (D.S.E.) by the Embassy of Spain. He has over thirty years of university and seminary teaching experience. In addition, he has conducted proficiency training workshops. For fourteen years he served as director of the Language Acquisition Center at Baylor University, where he also taught Spanish.
