Danse Macabre (versione italiana) - Stephen King 2016-11-15

«Questo libro è la mia scorribanda in tutti i mondi fantastici e terrificanti che mi hanno affascinato e impaurito. Non ci sarà molto ordine, e se a volte vi verrà in mente un cane da caccia dal fiuto scadente che si aggira senza sosta dietro a ogni odore interessante, a me andrà più che bene. Ma non è una caccia. È una danza. E ogni tanto in questa sala da ballo spengono le luci. Ma danzeremo lo stesso, voi e io. Anche nel buio. Specialmente nel buio. Posso invitarvi?» In Danse macabre, che ormai è diventato un piccolo classico, Stephen King racconta una delle sue storie più coinvolgenti e stimolanti, quella di un mondo, e dei suoi abitanti, nel quale si è conquistato un posto d'onore e verso il quale continua a nutrire rispetto, curiosità e amore. Con la sua scrittura diretta e brillante, King celebra l'horror definendone gli archetipi in una danza in cui sfilano, tenendosi per mano, letteratura e z-movies, leggende metropolitane e cinema d'autore, serie tv, fumetti e perfino le figurine. L'approccio apparentemente acritico, dichiaratamente soggettivo, sbarazza il professor King da ogni accademismo lasciandolo libero di fare ciò che meglio sa: raccontare. Si crea il miracolo di un testo profondo e lieve allo stesso tempo, dalla prosa torrenziale e inventiva; di un saggio che, ben lungi dall'ispirarsi nella forma ai canoni tradizionali, è piuttosto un possente, affascinante amarcord. E, per gli appassionati, un'irresistibile occasione per sbirciare sotto il mantello del re. Del brivido. Qui Danse macabre ritorna in una versione aggiornata e rivista a cura di Giovanni Arduino.

Landscape of Fear - Tony Magistrale 1988

One of the very first books to take Stephen King seriously, Landscape of Fear (originally published in 1988) reveals the source of King's horror in the sociopolitical anxieties of the post-Vietnam, post-Watergate era. In this groundbreaking study, Tony Magistrale shows how King's fiction transcends the escapism typical of its genre to tap into our deepest cultural fears: "that the government we have installed through the democratic process is not only corrupt but actively pursuing our destruction, that our technologies have progressed to the point at which the individual has now become expendable, and that our fundamental social institutions—school, marriage, workplace, and the church—have, beneath their veneers of respectability, evolved into perverse manifestations of narcissism, greed, and violence." Tracing King's moralist vision to the likes of Twain, Hawthorne, and Melville, Landscape of Fear establishes the place of this popular writer within the grand tradition of American literature. Like his literary forbears, King gives us characters that have the capacity to make ethical choices in an imperfect, often evil world. Yet he inscribes that conflict within unmistakably modern settings. From the industrial nightmare of "Graveyard Shift" to the breakdown of the domestic sphere in The Shining, from the techno-horrors of The Stand to the religious fanaticism and adolescent cruelty depicted in Carrie, Magistrale charts the contours of King's fictional landscape in its first decade.

Stephen King Short Fiction - Stephen King 2021-10-05

Now in one stunning collection, four of Stephen King's most well-loved horror stories: The Mist, Apt Pupil, The Body, and The Sun Dog. Each standalone story is a riveting master class in short fiction from "the reigning King of American popular literature" (Los Angeles Daily News). In The Mist, terror descends in the wake of a summer storm. David Drayton, his son Billy, and their neighbor Brent Norton join dozens of others and head to the local grocery store to replenish supplies and become trapped by a strange mist that has enveloped the town. As the confinement takes its toll on the group's nerves, staying in the store may prove fatal—so, the Draytons, Brent, and a handful of other survivors attempt their escape. But what's out there may be worse than what they left behind. Apt Pupil follows Todd Bowden, a top-performing student and all around "good kid" who learns his teacher, Mr. Dussander, is more than he seems. Turns out, Mr. Dussander is the target of a decades-old manhunt. He's never been caught, and Todd doesn't want to be the one to turn him in. Instead, Todd will face his fears and learn the real meaning of power—and the seductive lure of evil. In The Body, it's 1960 in the fictional town of Castle Rock, Maine, and a boy from a neighboring town has vanished. Twelve-year-old Gordie Lachance and his three friends set out on a quest to find his body along the railroad tracks. During the course of their journey, Gordie, Chris Chambers, Teddy Duchamp, and Vern Tessio come to terms with death and the harsh truths of growing up in this iconic, unforgettable, coming-of-age story that was also adapted in the 1986 film classic Stand by Me. In The Sun Dog, Kevin Delavan receives the perfect gift for his fifteenth birthday: a Polaroid Sun 660. But no matter where Kevin Delevan aims the camera, it produces a photograph of an enormous, vicious dog. In each successive picture, the menacing creature draws nearer to the flat surface of the Polaroid film. When old Pop Merrill, the town's sharpest trader, gets wind of this phenomenon, he envisions a way to profit from it. But the Sun Dog, a beast that shouldn't exist at all, is a dangerous investment... This beautiful boxed set makes the perfect gift for seasoned King fans and newcomers alike—and features impeccably crafted, page-turning stories you'll return to again and again.

This anthology is the most unusual and original collection of stories you'll ever read! It is a literary version of Danse Macabre "Plague art". Twenty-six literary reflections that embody those themed, classical artworks devoted to the spectrum of humanity's intriguing interactions with the Angel of Death. -- "People die from old age, illness, accident, violence, despair. They can die before they are born. The happy and the sad, the sane and insane, the rich and the poor, the law abiding and the criminal, the genius and the fool, the saint and the sinner. Some face death consciously, others die in their sleep. But we all die and Danse Macabre is a kind of universal melting pot for death. My goal is to create an anthology that is a literary version of the Danse Macabre artwork, showing the same range of humanity in a variety of situations and encounters with death." -- Nancy Kilpatrick Includes works by: Gabriel Boutros, Brad Carson, Suzanne Church, Dan Devine, Lorne Dixon, Tom Dullemond, Opal Edgar, Ian M.
