Do You Believe? - Ann Lawrence 2013-07-02
DO YOU BELIEVE IN EVIL? Rose Early is searching for her missing sister Joan. The only clue she has is a horror novel with her sister's notes in the margins. The author of the book lives only a few minutes away and Rose can't resist seeking him out. She understands why his book affected her sister: the author creates an evil so palpable it shakes even skeptical Rose. Vic Drummond, the writer, knew Rose's sister, and agrees to help Rose find her; Rose expected him to be reclusive and strange, but she didn't expect him to be quite so . . . attractive. As their search intensifies, Rose finds herself inexorably drawn to Vic, but it seems to Rose that their feelings for each other are being influenced by some outside force-she knows love at first sight doesn't exist. As they come closer to finding Joan, Rose and Vic journey from the local church to a mysterious sex club whose members dress in demon costumes. The more they learn about what Joan was doing in the days before her disappearance, the more questions they have, until Rose must decide: Does she believe in real evil? And does she believe in real love? At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

Do You Believe in Unicorns? - Bethanie Deeney Murguia 2018

Do You Believe? - Robert Noland 2015-03-01
The cross of Christ has long been a historic and revered religious icon as well as a divine dividing line within humanity. The powerful Pure Flix film Do You Believe? ushers the timeless question of the meaning of the cross to a deeply personal place: What does it mean to me? Is it only a symbol or truly salvation? The Do You Believe? Devotional is a 40-day journey centered around the eternal evidence and powerful proof of the great love of God with the sacrifice offered for humanity associated with only One, His Son, Jesus Christ. In the film, a challenging question is brought before our politically correct culture: If you were accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you? Regardless of your own answer to such a question, or the place in life you may find yourself, these 40 days can be an investment into your future and more importantly, your eternity as you pursue a deeper level of faith for yourself. The Do You Believe? Devotional book is a daily walk through the word of God with inspiring quotes from the film. It offers a respite from the rush of life and the peace and hope made available only through the cross.

Do You Believe? - Paul David Tripp 2021-11-05
Best-Selling Author Paul David Tripp Unpacks 12 Doctrines for Everyday Christian Living
Doctrine—what Christians believe—directly influences how they live. The biblical truths about God, humanity, and the world are not merely about knowing more—they are also about loving God and making sense of this life and the life to come. But what happens when there is disparity between what believers confess and how they live? In his latest book, Do You Believe?, pastor and best-selling author Paul David Tripp takes a close look at 12 core doctrines and how they engage and transform the human heart and mind. According to Tripp, “true belief is always lived.” To demonstrate, he unpacks each doctrine and presents its relevance for the Christian life. As readers explore topics such as the doctrine of God, the holiness of God, and the doctrine of Scripture, they will be fueled to fall deeper in love with and stand in awe of their Creator and Father—putting the truths of God’s word on display for all the world to see.

Do You Believe It? - Peter Harris 2020-01-09
Do you doubt the truth of your Christian faith? Peter Harris’s book Do You Believe It? is for you. It is also for those who know Christians who are struggling with doubt and for those who have been challenged about their faith by skeptics and don’t have the answers. By looking at the very best of evidence for Christianity, Peter Harris presents the compelling case that Christianity is the truth. Writing in an accessible way about some challenging topics, Harris begins by deploying historical arguments for Jesus’s resurrection. He then turns to science to contend that there is a creator. Using biblical data and the famous Trilemma, he demonstrates that the creator is also Jesus. He deals with other difficult questions such as “How is a miracle possible?” and “What about suffering and evil?” He ends by providing Christian responses to some thorny contemporary issues such as gender equality. The book is also designed to be used as the basis for discussion groups in the church where doubts can be safely discussed. So stop what you are doing, open this book, and prepare to be amazed at how good the evidence is for Christianity!

Do What You Believe - Steve Deace
2021-12-20

This time the soul of America really is at stake. Sure, for many years we've heard this language dramatically and cynically utilized during political campaigns, but this time it's actually true. American Exceptionalism faces more systemic threats and existential peril than ever before. A culture that can't agree on what a border, citizen, criminal, law, constitution, life, or even the truth is probably doesn't have long to last. But as Jesus warned in Matthew 9:37, "The harvest is plenty but the workers are few." Either we will stand boldly now for what we believe, or our way of life will be lost to the ash heap of history. Pilgrims "having undertaken the glory of God" and Great Awakenings are what gave birth to liberty on this continent in the first place. And without a revival of those first things in our time, that liberty will be lost for good. This will be the generation that determines the fate of the West. This is a blueprint and battleplan for such a time as this.

Answering the Music Man - B. Kyle Keltz
2020-05-29

Dan Barker, ex-preacher and co-founder of the Freedom From Religion Foundation, travels widely, arguing in debates and speaking on his beliefs that Christianity is false, God does not exist, and the Bible is filled with errors and mythology. He has been touted as one of America's leading atheists. Yet close examination of his arguments shows that Barker's reasons for disbelief are poorly reasoned and miss the mark as they are aimed at a mistaken caricature of Christian theism. Answering the Music Man exposes Barker's misunderstandings of Christianity and provides compelling answers to Barker's arguments.

Do You Believe in Magic? - Paul A. Offit, M.D.
2013-06-18

Medical expert Paul A. Offit, M.D., offers a scathing exposé of the alternative medicine industry, revealing how even though some popular therapies are remarkably helpful due to the placebo response, many of them are ineffective, expensive, and even deadly. Dr. Offit reveals how alternative medicine—an unregulated industry under no legal obligation to prove its claims or admit its risks—can actually be harmful to our health. Using dramatic real-life stories, Offit separates the sense from the nonsense, showing why any therapy—alternative or traditional—should be scrutinized. He also shows how some nontraditional methods can do a great deal of good, in some cases exceeding therapies offered by conventional practitioners. An outspoken advocate for science-based health advocacy who is not afraid to take on media celebrities who promote alternative practices, Dr. Offit advises, "There's no such thing as alternative medicine. There's only medicine that works and medicine that doesn't."

Do You Believe It? - Otis William Caldwell 1934

Do You Believe? - R. M. Cahill 2016-03-24

Robert Matthews was a self-made man with a baby daughter, a bright future and a successful business. Through an unforeseen event, he loses everything that he has worked so hard for. Finding himself at a loss as to how to move forward, he proceeds to delve back into building up his business and hardens his heart so he will never be hurt again. Until he meets Dianna, who takes him on an incredible roller coaster ride of emotions. The world once again opens up to Robert as he learns how to let this woman enter into his heart and become the center of his universe until she inevitably strikes him a crushing blow. Now, he resigns himself to remain single and focus on what's most important in his life. His daughter and his career. Just when everything seems to be going according to plan, Robert is once again torn between what he deems is necessary to do and what in fact he actually feels in his heart. When Dianna has a sudden and devastating event happen to her, Robert struggles with the decision he needs to make. Does he take the risk of reopening his heart once more to his one true love paying the ultimate price for his effort to help or does he remain steadfast in his belief to close his heart and deny himself of what he wants most of all?

Does It Matter What You Believe? - Elvin C. Myers 2021-06-02

The road, the way, the belief system that leads a human soul home and into the presence of God is not crowded. There are few who find it. So, it's important to ask yourself: Are you on the right road? Elvin C. Myers, a former missionary and pastor to churches in Colorado, Virginia, and Florida, wrote this book to steer people away from errors that might damn their souls. The author draws on his more than sixty years of being a pastor to explore the differences between Protestant Evangelical beliefs and those of Catholicism. In doing so, he answers questions such as: Why is it incumbent on people who know the truth of the Lord to speak up? Does living a good life ensure someone will go to heaven? What are the consequences of being disobedient to the Lord? Can someone who is deeply religious still perish in hell? It is the author's sincere hope that this book will lead you away from the judgment of hell and the lake of fire that is mentioned in Revelation 20:14-15, a place where the soul never dies.

Do You Believe Is It Real or Fiction? - Scott Chally 2014-08-08

This is a real-life story. You will read and get an in-depth look of my childhood, family, my teen years, the years I spent in the service, running a business and all the good and bad in my life, that I had, clear up till I had lost it, where I was put in the hospital and then diagnosed with bipolar affective disorder/schizo affective disorder. It all started forty days before Easter of 2006, having visions or insights into the Bible while making a new law for the people, also having vibes and connections with spirits that allowed me to believe that the end of the world was upon us. This true life story takes you on a journey, which is believed to have come from God. During the second part of the story, I fight against evil or Satan himself, which makes me believe that I may possibly be the Antichrist if I don't do the right thing in order to save the world. I would tell people that I'm the Chosen One Jesus Christ, the Second Coming, the Messiah, the Son of God or even the Lamb of God.

Do You Believe In Santa? - Sierra Donovan 1949-01-01

Miracles don't just happen on 34th Street. They can happen right in your living room—if you're willing to believe... What grown woman claims to have seen Santa Claus? Mandy Reese, for one—on a very special Christmas Eve when she was eight years old. These days, Mandy works at a year-round Christmas store in Tall Pine, California, where customers love to hear about her childhood encounter with Saint Nick. But when Jake Wyndham arrives in town—charming, gorgeous, extremely practical—Mandy faces a dilemma. Deny what she saw, or let Jake think she's sugarplum crazy? Jake scouts hotel locations all over the country, but he's never met anyone quite like Mandy before. Her warmth and sparkle are irresistible, but...meeting Santa? Really? Jake's no Scrooge but he's definitely skeptical. Then again, there are all kinds of things Jake never experienced until he came to Tall Pine. Like autumn snow. Mind blowing kisses. And the magic of falling head-over-heels, madly in love...

Do You Believe? - Travis Thrasher 2015-03-10
From the creators of the blockbuster film God's Not Dead comes a novel based on their follow-up film Do You Believe?—an inspiring, heart-stirring, and faith-affirming story about how God works in the lives of those who believe. When Pastor Matthew Wesley encounters a homeless man on a city street in the middle of the night, he can't imagine the series of life-changing events that will result from that brief moment. But as the stories and desperate circumstances of several people—including a couple struggling to make ends meet, a soldier trying to rejoin society, a pregnant and homeless teenager, and an elderly couple still grieving the loss of their only child—intertwine and come together during one climactic night, they all must work together to overcome their struggles before all is lost. Evocative and moving, this sweeping narrative challenges you to confront the question: Do you really believe in the power of the cross, and if so, what are you going to do about it?

Do You Believe In Magic? - M. E. Nevill 2016-12-19

Have you ever wondered if you are really in control of your life? Or could it be that someone or something has been placed in front of a computer somewhere and is pushing buttons and sending messages to your brain? What really influences our daily decisions: friends, family, God, the government perhaps, or a dog? These are the questions Dr. Anthony Harding begins to ask himself shortly after arriving in San Diego. He's convinced that the only way his two daughters will ever overcome their mother's death and the stigma of her alcoholism and drug addiction and the only way to repair his own status as a dead-beat dad is to jump on a job offer that will move them as far away from Chicago's south side as possible. His expectations doesn't include being attracted to a pint-sized independent neighbor from Louisiana whose best friend seems to be a miniature chocolate poodle that appears to have a talent for making unusual things happen.

Easter Is Coming! - 2019-02-01

Mommy and her little ones are settling in for story time, and this time it's the biblical story of Easter that she's telling. As the youngsters hear God's tale unfold with its sometimes somber notes about sin and death, they are softly and continually reminded, "But Easter is coming!" By the end of the book, the anticipation has built and the children can celebrate the ending and the glory of Easter Sunday. In a time when children's Easter excitement often focuses on only egg hunts and candy, this book offers a different—and true—reason for joy and expectancy. It's designed to be read and reread on the days leading up to Easter, telling the greatest story and building a sense of anticipation and celebration in little hearts. Go to bhkids.com to find this book's Parent Connection, an easy tool to help moms and dads (or anyone else who loves kids) discuss the book's message with their child. We're all about connecting parents and kids to each other and to God's Word.

Do You Believe in Life After Death? - Ashley Harrold
2016-04-29

When DI Martin Penn pulled a young man from out of a grave in the early hours of the morning, it seemed to be an open-and-shut case, but what Graham Peters was asking him to believe as the reason for his actions was totally illogical or was it? Is there life after death? You make your own mind up.

Do You Believe in Rock and Roll? - Raymond I.

Schuck 2012-09-26

Since its release in 1971, Don McLean's song "American Pie" has become an indelible part of U.S. culture. It has sparked countless debates about the references within the lyrics; been celebrated as a chronicle of American life from the late 1950s through the early 1970s; and has become iconic itself as it has been remade, parodied, and referenced within numerous texts and forums. This volume offers a set of new essays that focus on the cultural and historical significance of the song. Representing a variety of perspectives and fields of study, the essays address such topics as historical and literary interpretations of the song's lyrics, its musical qualities, the commentary the song offers on rock and roll history, the continuing significance of the song, and the ways in which the song has been used by various writers and artists.

Would You Believe Me? - Mariah Shepherd
2017-01-31

Sixteen-year-old Rose Mendez has the same dream every night. She's at a playground with her little brother Gabe. Gabe wants to play hide-and-seek, so she tells him to go hide. The problem is, she never finds him. Her parents tell her to call the cops. A body is eventually discovered, but Rose doesn't believe its little Gabe. She wakes up screaming. Its too bad the dream really happened. Now, her parents are dead, too, and Rose is being fostered by the Johnson family and their creepy son. Despite her bad luck, her first day at Riverview High School starts out all right. She finds a friend in Cameron, and a friend is what she needs since she thinks Gabe is still alive and shes made it her mission to find him. There are people who think shes crazy. After all, they found Gabes body, and the DNA was a match. Rose has a theory, though, about what really happened that day at the playground. As she copes with the loss of her parents and brother, she becomes more and more obsessed with the investigation. Question is: who will believe her story?

Do You Believe? - Fran Perricone DiMartino 2003-06

Do You Believe? - William E. Marsh 2020-10-11
We all believe. Be it in love, God, Santa Claus, or the workings of an internal combustion engine, we all believe in something. After all, we're only human. Belief, however, is hardly black and white. It's one thing to believe in things we can see. It's quite another to believe in things we cannot. And another task altogether to trust in things we cannot see. Like God. Faith isn't easy. But it's us: we're finite beings. Faith recognizes our limits; it acknowledges life's ambiguity. And it counters these with its understanding of what is most true—God. This book is a story about faith. It's a story of learning to trust in a supernatural God in a material world. It's a meditation on living with, as philosopher Soren Kierkegaard put it, "objective uncertainty." It's a tale of learning to live with an invisible God.

Do You Believe? - Anna Albo 2020-01-13

After a disastrous first year as the owner of the St. Paul Falcons, Allie Stewart needs a reset...badly. She also needs to build a winning team before it's too late. And the only way to do that is to land the top free agent in league history. But with nothing to offer him but promises and the Falcons' horrible reputation, the odds of Tyson Myers signing with the Falcons is slim to impossible. But without him, Allie risks losing the team. But that's not the only risk Allie's facing. With Will banished hundreds of miles away, can they continue to keep their relationship a secret and will it survive the distance? And as rumors persist about Allie's personal life, will it create cracks in her relationship with Will? As Allie struggles to keep the Falcons, can she also keep the man she loves before she loses it all?

Would You Believe? - Tom Harpur 2010-12-17

A hundred years ago, most people accepted without question what their priest or rabbi or imam taught them about God, but many people today, educated to think for themselves, find that the concepts of God taught by the world's major religions either insult or contradict their intelligence. At the same time they find that having no faith has left a yawning spiritual void in their lives. In Would You Believe?, Tom Harpur deals with the tough questions raised today by real people, such as how to reconcile the presence of evil, pain and suffering with belief in a loving God. The challenge we face, Harpur writes, is not to find a substitute but to rediscover God under the encrustation of ritual and doctrine that the various faiths have built up. We can go beyond all narrow-minded claims of being the only true religion, the only correct interpreter of God, he says, when we understand that all faiths are simply routes towards God that humans have been inspired to create. We can use our intelligence to believe in God, rather than deny it in order to swallow notions devised for a different people and a different time.

Do You Believe? - Robert Noland 2015-03-01

The cross of Christ has long been a historic and revered religious icon as well as a divine dividing line within humanity. The powerful Pure Flix film "Do You Believe?" ushers the timeless question of the meaning of the cross to a deeply personal place: What does it mean to me? Is it only a symbol or truly salvation? "The Do You Believe? 40-Day Devotional" is a journey centered around the eternal evidence and powerful proof of the great love of God with the sacrifice offered for humanity associated with only One, His Son, Jesus Christ. In the film, a challenging question is brought before our politically correct culture: If you were accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you? Regardless of your own answer to such a question, or the place in life you may find yourself, these 40 days can be an investment into your future and more importantly, your eternity as you pursue a deeper level of faith for yourself. The "Do You Believe?" Devotional book is a daily walk through the word of God with inspiring quotes from the film. It offers a respite from the rush of life and the peace and hope made available only through the cross.

Journey to the Cross - Paul David Tripp
2020-12-18

Journey through Lent with Best-Selling Author Paul David Tripp "During our forty days together, may your mourning increase so that your joy may deepen." —Paul David Tripp Lent is a time in the yearly Christian calendar when we mourn our sin and let go of worldly things that keep our hearts from experiencing God more fully. But how do we reevaluate and recalibrate the values of our hearts to match those of our suffering Savior? In this forty-day Lenten devotional, best-selling author Paul David Tripp invites us to set aside time from the busyness of our lives to focus on the suffering and sacrifice of Jesus. Each of the short readings encourages us to abide in the abundant joy found in Christ as we encounter the Savior more fully and follow him more faithfully during this Lenten season.

Sex in a Broken World - Paul David Tripp
2018-01-16

We live in a deeply broken world . . . but there is hope. Sexuality is a fundamental part of what it means to be human—part of God's beautiful design when he created all things. And yet, sex in our world today looks nothing like the way that God intended it to be. Sexual brokenness surrounds us and, in one way or another, affects us all. This sexual brokenness reveals our deep need for redemption—something quick fixes, mere behavior modification, or a set of rules can't provide. Honest and direct yet kind and caring, this book points us to the only place we can find help for sexual brokenness—the transforming grace of Jesus Christ. Only this grace offers hope for a life of freedom, purity, and joy as God intended.

Do You Believe? - Jiangy C. Moore 2022-12-05
Are you at a place where you feel like the whole world has forsaken you? Maybe you are saying to yourself, This is it. This is the last resort. This is my stopping point. If I don't get answers, I'm done following or believing in God. I am here to tell you that you were not led to this book by mistake but rather, guided by the Lord. The purpose of my book is to bring life back to dead situations and hope to the hopeless, encourage the brokenhearted, and bring healing to the wounded in hearts. In my book, I am sharing my testimonies of the goodness of God in my life as a child of God and what faith and patience in God can do. My prayer is that my testimonies will affect and be an encouragement for my generation and the generations to come and to let someone know that no matter what you're going through in life, no matter how big the battle is or how hard the wind and the storms of life are hitting you, if you believe in the Almighty God, He can turn your situation around for His glory.

Do You Believe? - Antonio Monda 2007-11-13
Informal, revealing, unexpected, this book is a captivating and thought-provoking meditation how faith, in all its facets, remains profoundly relevant for and in our culture. "When the Italian writer Antonio Monda sat down to talk religion with American cultural leaders... he went straight for the big questions." —O, The Oprah Magazine Some of the most well-known and well-respected cultural figures of our time enter into intimate and illuminating conversation about their personal beliefs, about belief itself, about religion, and about God. Antonio Monda is a disarming, rigorous interviewer, asking the most difficult questions (he often begins an interview point blank: "Do you believe in God?") that lead to the most wide-ranging conversations. An ardent believer himself, Monda talks both with atheists (asked what she feels when she meets a believer, Grace Paley replies: "I respect his thinking and his beliefs, but at the same time I think he's deluded") and other believers, their discussion ranging from personal images of God (Michael Cunningham sees God as a black woman, Derek Walcott as a wise old white man with a beard) to religion's place in American culture, from the afterlife to the concepts of good and evil, from fundamentalism to the Bible. And almost without fail, the conversations turn to questions of art and literature. Toni Morrison discusses Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner, Richard Ford invokes Wallace Stevens, and David Lynch draws attention to the religious aspects of Bu-uel, Fellini...and Harold Ramis's Groundhog Day.

THE SPIRIT WORLD 2012-12-14

People are always asking for help. Those cries don't go unanswered. It is just that people don't look for the answers. They expect them to be delivered right to their door. This book is about the closest you will come to having all the answers dumped in your lap. But you need to read it in order to take that first step in changing the way you think about yourself and life. This book was written to explain the importance of opening your mind to the world of spirit and all the opportunities that this will open up for you. It is also to impart the knowledge that death is not the end, but a new beginning.
