Encyclopaedia of Indian Literature - Amaresh Datta 1988

A major activity of the Sahitya Akademi is the preparation of an encyclopaedia of Indian literature. The venture, covering twenty-two languages of India, is the first of its kind. Written in English, the encyclopaedia gives a comprehensive idea of the growth and development of Indian literature. The entries on authors, books and general topics have been tabulated by the concerned advisory boards and finalised by a steering committee. Hundreds of writers all over the country contributed articles on various topics. The encyclopaedia, planned as a six-volume project, has been brought out. The Sahitya Akademi embarked upon this project in right earnest in 1984. The efforts of the highly skilled and professional editorial staff started showing results and the first volume was brought out in 1987. The second volume was brought out in 1988, the third in 1989, the fourth in 1991, the fifth in 1992, and the sixth volume in 1994. All the six volumes together include approximately 7500 entries on various topics, literary trends and movements, eminent authors and significant

Original essays by scholars of geography from India, Western Europe, and the USA provides important insights into the way contemporary geographers are engaging with India. The earlier narrow colonial focus that saw India as a country of resources and "peoples" (tribes and castes) has now been discarded for a broader view located in mainstream intellectual frameworks and informed by a public policy perspective. This volume highlights how contemporary geographers see and write on topics such as the state, nation, community, environment, and division of labor, while keeping in mind issues
