Be the Pine, Be the Ball - Paul J. Zingg 2018-04-27
Focusing on the landscapes and memory of golf and examining the games nature and appeal, this collection of seventy-two haiku poems and essays aims to lead readers to a fuller appreciation of the culture and history of golf and a deeper awareness of a players place in the game. Be the Pine, Be the Ball also reveals the compelling beauty and power of haiku, the most popular poetic form in the world. Through the brevity of its style, precise language, and ability to reveal how ordinary moments and elements of our lives are pathways to a better understanding of ourselves and the world around us, haiku can have both a meditative and consequential effect on the reader. A key to the connection between haiku and golf is that both foster powers of concentration and detailed observation with a related reduction of distractions. Both seek to cultivate a more tranquil and disciplined mind and to translate that condition into how a life is lived and a game is played.

Flying the SR-71 Blackbird - Richard H. Graham
2019-10-08

For anyone who has ever wondered what it's like to fly the SR-71 on a secret Mach 3 reconnaissance mission, this book has the answer. Completely redesigned and updated with photos from author Colonel Richard H. Graham's personal archive, as well as a new introduction, Flying the SR-71 Blackbird details what an SR-71 mission entailed, from planning to donning a pressure suit to returning to base. The Lockheed SR-71, unofficially known as the Blackbird, was an advanced, long-range, Mach 3 strategic reconnaissance aircraft developed by Lockheed Skunk Works. The aircraft flew so fast and high that not one was ever shot down, even by a missile. SR-71 pilot and instructor Colonel Richard Graham offers a rare cockpit perspective on how regular Air Force pilots and navigators transformed themselves into SR-71 Blackbird crews, turning their unique aviation talents to account in an unprecedented way. Arguably the world's foremost expert on piloting the Blackbird, Graham takes readers along on an operational mission that only a few Air Force pilots have ever experienced.

Journals of the Plague Years - Norman Spinrad 2013-07-25
The Plague's origins were mysterious, but its consequences were all too obvious: quarantined cities, safe-sex machines, Sex Police, the outlawing of old-fashioned love. Four people hold the fate of humanity in their hands...A sexual mercenary condemned to death as a foot soldier in the Army of the Living Dead; a scientist who's devoted his whole life to destroying the virus and now discovers he has only ten weeks to succeed; a God-fearing fundamentalist on his way to the presidency before he accepts a higher calling; and a young infected coed from Berkeley on a bizarre crusade to save the world with a new religion of carnal abandon. Each will discover that the only thing more dangerous than the Plague is the cure.

Downing Street Years - Margaret Thatcher 2011-01-04
This first volume of Margaret Thatcher's memoirs encompasses the whole of her time as Prime Minister - the formation of her goals in the early 1980s, the Falklands, the General Election victories of 1983 and 1987 and, eventually, the circumstances of her fall from political power. She also gives frank accounts of her dealings with foreign statesmen and her own ministers.

U Oughta - William M. Gornik 2003-09

U OUGHTA is the true life story of a Slovenian immigrants son (Bill) who was born during the roaring 20's Prohibition era of bootlegging, speakeasies, gambling and all around raucous lifestyle. Bill's experience with the realities of life began at an early age beginning with severe lessons in honesty, obedience and acceptance of responsibility for his irresponsible actions. He describes the rigor of 8 years attending a parochial school and life during the depression era with unusual candor and humor. Some of his experiences, antics and escapades, that may seem unbelievable, are indicative of the fearless, daring and adventurous lifestyle he dreamed of and was destined to follow the rest of his life. He soloed an airplane before he ever drove a car, and was a crew member that flew a B-25 Bomber half way around the globe from Savannah, Georgia to Kunming, China where he flew 46 combat missions with the 14th Air Force Flying Tigers bombing and strafing targets in the South China Sea, French IndoChina, Thailand and Burma. He served 3 years with the Occupations Forces in Germany where he had the opportunity to conduct military and civil visits to Yugoslavia, Italy and Norway. While serving in Thailand during the Viet Nam war, he persisted in requesting and was finally authorized to fly one more mission in a jet fighter from a base that he probably bombed while serving in China 25 years previously, thus having the distinction of completing 46 missions in WWII and one mission during the Viet Nam war. At the height of his military career, he was assigned to the Top-Secret SR-71 Blackboard program, a major step in his otherwise exciting and memorable military career. He was personally responsible for establishing the tradition of the now famous Blackbird Tie-cutting Ceremony. Ties worn by Senator Barry Goldwater, Mr. C.K. "Kelly" Johnson and a number of 1 through 4 star Generals are now in a museum at Omaha, Nebraska. The author has been around the earth at least twice, walked the Great Wall of China, hunted big game in Africa, hunted in Europe and throughout the US. He fished in streams, lakes and oceans from Alaska to Bahia, Mexico. He flew in every type of aerial conveyance from balloons to super-sonic fighters. For his 80th birthday, he completed a 10,000foot sky-jump and vows to repeat at age 85. In addition to his numerous escapades, accolades and accomplishments, his last and most prestigious recognition occurred in April 2002 when he was inducted into the initial Blackbird Laurels as the only Enlisted man in a group of 22 famous test pilots, Senior Officers and dignitaries including Lockheed's Clarence L. Kelly Johnson, designer of the still unequaled SR-71 Blackbird. The subject of "UOUGHTA" cannot be defined in one word. It is a combination of humor, reality, sadness, history, adventure, patriotism, ambition, perseverance and citizenship. Naturally, there are always negatives in one's life, however, the word "failure" was never considered acceptable in the author's vocabulary.

Guarding Your Business - Manu Malek 2007-05-08

Guarding Your Business outlines the organizational elements that must be in place to protect the information and physical assets of typical businesses and organizations. The book recognizes the need for an architecture integrated within the organizational environment for systematic protection. Such an architecture is offered along with the building blocks to make organizations resistant to human error and resilient under physical attack or natural disaster. The book addresses risk assessment, determination of quality-of-service levels that balance safety versus cost, security versus privacy, determination of access rights to data and software, and a security-conscious culture in the organization. Questions answered by experts from academia and industry include: How can one organize for security? What organizational structures, policies, and procedures must be in place? What legal and privacy issues must be addressed?

What Will Be - Michael L. Dertouzos 2009-03-17

Michael Dertouzos has been an insightful commentator and an active participant in the creation of the Information Age. Now, in What Will Be, he offers a thought-provoking and entertaining vision of the world of the next decade -- and of the next century. Dertouzos examines the impact that the following new technologies and challenges will have on our lives as the Information Revolution progresses: all the music, film and text ever produced will be available on-demand in our own homes your "bodynet" will let you make phone calls, check email and pay bills as you walk down the street advances in telecommunication will radically alter the role of face-to-face contact in our lives global disparities in infrastructure will widen the gap between rich and poor surgical mini-robots and online care will change the practice of medicine as we know it. Detailed, accessible and visionary, What Will Be is essential for Information Age revolutionaries and technological neophytes alike.

Other Americas - Norman Spinrad 2012-12-21

Spinrad examines one of his most compelling obsessions - the possible "futures" of America. Street Meat: In New York City, streeties, zonies and subway cannibals are locked in a nightmarish scrabble for rat meat, sex - and survival. The Lost Continent: group of African tourists visit the ruins of Space Age America - a surreal landscape of abandoned skyscrapers, empty streets and dead, rusted machinery. World War Last: The hashish-smoking Sheik of Koram has a plan to trick America and Russia into war. La Vie Continue: In Paris exiled science-fiction author Norman Spinrad ignores a lucrative - but dangerous - bidding war between the KGB and the CIA for the film rights to his story "Riding the Torch".
