Step-by-step technicals: Photos and accompanying text help students visualize procedures as they move through every step of a process. The easy-to-follow format significantly raises self-confidence, making a seamless transition to hands-on applications. Real-life scenarios: On the last page of every chapter, we offer students a chance to apply their new knowledge.

Hypothetical scenarios require students to use decision making skills mastered in that chapter. It is a chance for students to mentally leave the classroom and envision themselves as successful professionals. Key concepts: Throughout each chapter, we use imaginative ways to call attention to key points. Look for colored text, bold print, bullets, and charts. These relate to important theories your students must remember and makes chapter review for tests much easier! Learning strategy: More complex technicals include a checkmark beside any step that calls for specific safety precautions. This indicates an ideal moment to check on a client's comfort level. - Publisher.

Milady has evolved for over 85 years to become what it is today, the cornerstone of beauty and wellness education. We are very excited and proud to announce the latest edition of Milady Standard Cosmetology, the most commonly used resource in cosmetology education. For decades since our first textbook published, it has been our commitment to provide students with the foundation in the principles and skills needed to master the science and art of cosmetology, and with this latest version that commitment has not waived. For the new edition, celebrity stylist Ted Gibson served as Creative Director on the project. The result is a brilliant new design with over 750 new photos and a gorgeous layout, providing a visually stunning resource to engage today's learner. We also recruited a team of twelve authors, made up of top professionals and educators in the industry, to provide the most current information on concepts and techniques. During our extensive peer review and development process, we were asked for a resource that placed emphasis on essential content needed for licensure success, and we feel confident that we delivered. Milady Standard Cosmetology will continue to be a source of education that students can count on, not only while in school, but throughout their careers. Principles of Accounting Volume 1 - Financial Accounting - Mitchell Franklin 2019-04-11

The text and images in this book are in grayscale. A hardback color version is available. Search for ISBN 9781680922929. Principles of Accounting is designed to meet the scope and sequence requirements of a two-semester accounting course that covers the fundamentals of financial and managerial accounting. This book is specifically designed to appeal to both accounting and non-accounting majors, exposing students to the core concepts of accounting in familiar ways to build a strong foundation that can be applied across business fields. Each chapter opens with a relatable real-life scenario for today's college student. Thoughtfully designed examples are presented throughout each chapter, allowing students to build on emerging accounting knowledge. Concepts are further reinforced through applicable connections to more detailed business processes. Students are immersed in the "why" as well as the "how" aspects of accounting in order to reinforce concepts and promote comprehension over rote memorization.

Business Fundamentals/Salon and Spa Professionals - Salon Training International 2006-12

This 12-week program is designed to teach students the key business skills they will need to be successful Salon and Spa Professionals. During the program, students learn systems that top professionals are using to attract clientele, increase sales, and grow their personal income. Each student receives the Money Mastery CD's, which include the 3 key principles of the program. Students listen and learn on their own time and can re-listen to specific tracks when needed to master the programs skills. This course prepares them for immediate success and will increase their chances for employment upon graduation. Each teacher who is teaching this curriculum completes a two-day training program to learn the course materials in depth and to qualify to teach the program. They receive a Course Management Guide, which includes scripts, student coursework and a teacher's CD including a complete PowerPoint presentation and forms that will be needed to present the program.

Kabul Beauty School - Deborah Rodriguez 2007-04-10

Soon after the fall of the Taliban, in 2001, Deborah Rodriguez went to Afghanistan as part of a group offering humanitarian aid to this war-torn nation. Surrounded by men and women whose skills—as doctors, nurses, and therapists—seemed eminently more practical than her own, Rodriguez, a hairdresser and mother of two from Michigan, despaired of being of any real use. Yet she soon found she had a gift for befriending Afghans, and once her profession became known she was eagerly sought out by Westerners desperate for a good haircut and by Afghan women, who have a long and proud tradition of running their own beauty salons. Thus an idea was born. With the help of corporate and international sponsors, the Kabul Beauty School welcomed its first class in 2003. Well meaning but sometimes brazen, Rodriguez stumbled through language barriers, overstepped cultural customs, and constantly juggled the challenges of a postwar nation even as she learned how to empower her students to become their families' breadwinners by learning the fundamentals of coloring techniques, haircutting, and makeup. Yet within the small haven of the beauty school, the line between teacher and student quickly blurred as these vibrant women shared with Rodriguez their stories and their hearts: the newlywed who faked her virginity on her wedding night, the twelve-year-old bride sold into marriage to pay her family's debts, the Taliban member's wife who pursued her training despite her husband's constant beatings. Through these and other stories, Rodriguez found the strength to leave her own unhealthy marriage and allow herself to love again, Afghan style. With warmth and humor, Rodriguez details the lushness of a seemingly desolate region and reveals the magnificence behind the burqa. Kabul Beauty School is a remarkable tale of an extraordinary community of women who come together and learn the arts of perms, friendship, and freedom.
