ICAME 2020 - Hamrullah 2020-10-14

It is with great pleasure we introduce the proceeding of the 5th International Conference on Accounting, Management, and Economics (ICAME 2020) on The New Normal Economy. This conference has gathered researchers, academicians, and practitioners who are concerned with the topics, developing policy recommendations towards a better resilience amidst crises. The theme of the 5th International Conference on Accounting, Management, and Economics (ICAME 2020) was “The New Normal Economy: Risk-Based Decision Making in Economics, Management, and Accounting Perspectives”. The sudden and rapid emergence of the New Normal Era, particularly in business industry forces various elements in the society to challenge the conventional, and universities as the higher education institutions are no exception. It poses challenges to universities to produce graduates with ability to respond to changes, compete globally, create innovations, and quickly adapt to the vast technology advancements. With this in mind, the 5th ICAME has taken the theme The New Normal Economy: Risk-Based Decision Making in Economics, Management, and Accounting Perspectives. The conference invited speakers from academic and business practitioners who are experts in their fields to share their insights related to business and research orientation in facing the New Normal Era. The conference also invited researchers, academicians, and practitioners to participate in the Call for Papers to share their research results. The organizer hopes that the conference can stimulate various new research and discussions about New-Normal Economy that can help society and business to navigate and adapt in this pandemic era.

Indonesia memiliki khasanah budaya yang relatif banyak, salah satunya adalah kesenian tradisional. Kondisi real kesenian tradisional sekarang ini sebagian punah dan sebagian lagi diujung kepunahan (hidup enggan mati tak mau). Upaya pelestarian yaitu perlindungan, pengembangan, dan pemanfaatan sudah dilakukan baik oleh pemerintah maupun masyarakat. Salah satu penyebabnya adalah kurangnya perhatian terhadap wadah/tempat bernaung kesenian, sanggar. Tulisan ini mengupas peran sanggar dalam menjaga kelestarian kesenian tradisional, yang dibatasi pada sanggar yang terdapat di wilayah Sumatra, dengan pertimbangan bagaimana kehidupan sanggar kesenian tradisional yang berada di wilayah paling modern di Indonesia.

HICOSPOS 2019 - Purwo Santoso 2019-10-21
We are delighted to introduce the proceeding of the 1st Hasanuddin International Conference on Social and Political Sciences (HICOSPOS 2019). The phenomenon of climate change is avoidable since its effects are significantly on both environment and human beings live - such as human health, agriculture, food security, water supply, energy, ecosystem and. Here human beings play role as the actors as well as the victim. In addition, we also face society 5.0 in which integrated system of digital technology brings humans to achieve a high quality of life ideally, however, this state requires hard and sustainable efforts from all parties such as community of social and political sciences. Since every steps of society achievements also bring its consequences in terms of culture, and socio-political changes both positive and negative effects. Complexity phenomena of climate change in one side, and society 5.0 in other side, it turns should be responded by providing collaborative works among scholars and decision makers. International conference, therefore, becoming a scientific way to experts especially social and political sciences to share and contribute to solve the problems that arise from climate change and society 5.0. We hope that the proceeding will contribute to dynamic science discourse for responding social and climate changes challenges.

Proceedings of the Unima International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanities (UNICSSH 2022) - Recky Harold Elby Sendouw 2023-02-17

This is an open access book. The Unima International Conference on Social Sciences and Humanity (UNICSSH) 2022 was conducted on October, 11th - 13th 2022, at The Grand Kawanua International City, Manado, North Sulawesi, Indonesia. In 2022, Universitas Negeri Manado will host the Indonesian National Education Convention (KONASPI) X. Konaspi is a routine activity of the PPTKN which is held once every four years. The fourth industrial revolution (4.0) is marked by technological advances and supported by artificial intelligence that creates opportunities and challenges for the education system. University and vocational school graduates are facing a world transformed by technology which in turn is transforming the workplace from task-based to human-centered characteristics. Certain skills such as critical thinking, emotional intelligence, problem-solving, cognitive flexibility, and knowledge production are required. To answer this demand, the education system must put revolutionary innovation on its agenda. Scholars, researchers, and practitioners are invited to share ideas, research results, and best practices about education, science, and technology now and in the future at an international conference held by Universitas Negeri Manado as part of the Indonesian National Education Convention (KONASPI). As part of KONASPI X activities, Universitas Negeri Manado is holding the 2022 International Conference on Education, Social Science, and Humanities (ICESSHum). The topics in this international conference are Education, Law, Politics and Social Sciences, Economics, Public Administration, and Humanities. Through these themes, it is expected to involve many professionals who have indirect roles in related fields. To enrich this event, the committee invites all national and international participants (including academics, researchers, professionals, and other relevant stakeholders) to send research papers or review papers to be presented at the conference.

ICIIS 2020 - Asep Saepudin Jahar 2021-04-16

We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of the 3rd International Colloquium on Interdisciplinary Islamic Studies. It is annual event hosted and organised by the Graduate School of State Islamic University of Syarif Hidayatullah Jakarta. It was fully 2 days event 20-21 October 2020 by Virtual (online) mode with 3 keynotes speakers: Prof. Abdel Aziz Moenadil from the University of Ibn Thufail, Maroko, Prof Wael Aly Sayyed from the University of Ain Syams, Cairo, Mesir, and Assoc. Prof. Aria Nakissa, Ph.D. from Harvard University. The proceeding consisted of 41 accepted papers from the total of 81 submission papers. The proceeding consisted of 6 main areas of Interdisciplinary Islamic Studies. They are: Islam and medicine, Islam and Science and Technology, Islam and Psychology, Islam and Education, Quran and Hadits, and Islamic Studies with other various aspects. All papers have been scrutinized by a panel of reviewers who provide critical comments and corrections, and thereafter contributed to the improvement of the quality of the papers. Research in Islamic studies and Muslim societies today also increasingly uses interdisciplinary methods and approaches. In order to produce more objective findings, the researchers looked at the need to combine several methods or approaches to an object of study, so that they had additional considerations needed. These additional considerations add a more comprehensive perspective. In this way, in turn they can come up with better findings. Interdisciplinary Islamic studies dispute that Islam is monolithic, militaristic, and primarily Middle Eastern. We strongly believe that ICIIIS conference has become a good forum for all researcher, developers, practitioners, scholars, policy makers, especially post graduate students to discuss their understandings of current processes and findings, as well as to look at possibilities for setting-up new trends in SDG and Islamic Interdisciplinary Studies. We also expect that the future ICIIIS conference will be as successful and stimulating, as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume.

PENDIDIKAN AGAMA ISLAM DI DESA MULTIKULTURAL - DR. SUTIAH, M.PD

Masyarakat Indonesia di kenal dengan masyarakat yang majemuk (plural) atau masyarakat yang bercorak multicultural. Pluralitas masyarakat Indonesia tersebut, terutama terlihat dari segi suku bangsa dan agama, yang melahirkan keanekaragaman budaya (Multikultural). Namun tidak berarti bahwa masyarakat Indonesia yang multikultural itu seluruhnya memiliki wawasan, pemahaman atau kesadaran multicultural. Untuk itu pendidikan multikultural merupakan suatu keniscayaan, mengingat keberadaan masyarakat dengan individu-individu yang beragam latar belakang bahasa dan kebangsaan (nationality), suku (race or ethnicity), agama (religion), gender, dan kelas sosial (social class). Keragaman latar belakang individu dalam masyarakat tersebut berimplikasi pada keragaman latar belakang peserta didik dalam suatu lembaga pendidikan (James A. Bank, 1989: 14).. Paling tidak keragaman latar belakang siswa di lembaga-lembaga pendidikan di Indonesia terdapat pada paham keagamaan, afiliasi politik, tingkat sosial ekonomi, adat istiadat, jenis kelamin, dan asal daerahnya (perkotaan atau pedesaan). Proses belajar mengajar yang efektif semestinya menumbuhkan daya kreasi, daya nalar, rasa keingintahuan (curiosity), dan eksperimentasi-eksperimentasi untuk menemukan kemungkinan-kemungkinan baru (meskipun hasilnya keliru), memberikan keterbukaan terhadap kemungkinan-kemungkinan baru, menumbuhkan demokrasi, dan memberikan toleransi pada kekeliruan-kekeliruan akibat kreativitas berpikir

Proceedings of the International Seminar on Delivering Transpersonal Guidance and Counselling Services in School (ISDTGCCS 2022) - Diana Septi Purnama 2023-04-23

This is an open access book. Innovation in the guidance and counseling profession is important so that counselors, teachers, or guidance and counseling practitioners can provide optimal services to their counselees. Along with the development of science, creativity and technology in the fields of psychology, education, and guidance and counseling, various innovations and intervention in the implementation of counseling have been carried out. Especially with the Covid-19 pandemic, which is still on going, various creative interventions in counseling have begun to be widely used. Starting from the use of images for therapy or art therapy, dance movement and the use of other creative media to support the counselee. The need for creative media and innovation in the implementation of counseling is very important at this time, considering that during the pandemic the intensity of face-to-face contact with counselees and counselors is quite limited and most of them use online media. Saturation in the use of online media is also possible to occur a lot, therefore with the existence of creative interventions that can be guided by a virtual counselor, it will be very interesting for the counselee as well as having a therapeutic impact. Therefore, an international seminar was held with the theme creative counseling intervention. This activity can be followed by guidance and counseling teachers, counselors or various other mental health practitioners to increase information and knowledge about creative interventions in counseling. In the end, participants can provide creative and effective counseling services to their counselees.

ISCS 2020 - Hipolitus Kristoforus Kewuel

2021-06-09

We proudly present the proceedings of 1st International Seminar on Cultural Sciences 2020 (ISCS 2020). It focuses on the relation of gender, indigenous people, environment, religion, etc. The issue of culture and development is important today, especially in the time of Covid-19, not only globally, but also Indonesia nationally to the local level. There are several important issues relating to this, both institutionally and the relationships between individuals and groups in supporting the agenda of sustainable development. More than 75 manuscripts were presented at this conference with around 33 of them selected to be published in proceedings. We hope by this conference, discussions on the importance of culture and development will increasingly become an important concern together and bring better response from the government and social relations for development.

The Effect of Islamic Work Ethic and Islamic Work

Culture on the Productivity of Pekalongan Batik Workers in the Strengthening Sharia Ecosystem during the COVID-19 Pandemic Era - Susminingsih 2021-11-15

Physical distancing policy, work from home and prohibition of mobility and crowding caused the transaction of buying and selling batik products is also reduced. A number of shipments of batik products to cities in a number of provinces in Indonesia are also constrained by expedition travel restrictions. Such conditions force batik workers to make business breakthroughs, both in terms of motifs, designs, raw materials, marketing techniques from offline to online buying and selling, and discounts. The adaptation effort significantly succeeded in encouraging batik workers to maintain their business. As a majority muslim society, batik workers are also studied related to the role of religious values or teachings in encouraging productivity in the field of batik product making. The perception of religious values for workers can be studied from the Islamic work ethic that they have. The condition of Islamic coastal culture was also identified as having contributed to the productivity of batik workers. The Islamic work ethic shown by batik workers in Pekalongan City during the pandemic still plays a role and affects their productivity in producing batik. The demand for batik consumption in Pekalongan City during the COVID-19 pandemic remains and has experienced innovation. Some of the innovations in question are: innovation of batik making techniques; raw material innovation; price innovation; marketing innovation. Variables of Islamic work ethic and Islamic work culture in batik workers proved to have a simultaneous effect on work productivity.

Proceedings of the 1st International Seminar on Sharia, Law and Muslim Society (ISSLAMs 2022) - Putu Widhi Iswari 2022

This is an open access book. Wael B. Hallaq, a renowned sharia scholar, has called sharia an "episteme" that suffered a "structural death" following the dawn of modernity in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries (Hallaq 2009, 15-16). Yet, its resurgent is remarkable across a number of jurisdictional fault-lines: from Muslim-majority nations in Middle East and Southeast Asia to Muslim-minority societies in Western Europe and North America. Across these jurisdictions, the relationship between sharia and state law is central. It includes sharia-state encounters, notably in the form of (state) Islamic law, in the field of family law, which is often asserted as the 'core' or "last stronghold" of sharia (Moors 2003, 2; Coulson 1969, 115-6), and other substantive areas of law, such as Islamic economics and Islamic philanthropy and also jinayah (Islamic penal law). Regardless of their differences in their own specific context, these areas somehow manage to secure an importance place in the modern days. It involves different loci of authority to interpret, legislate, and enforce sharia, or parts of it that not only flourish but also being challenged around the Muslim world. Equally important are implications of the increasingly unsettled authority of apparently agreed-upon substance of sharia. To contribute on these issues, we would like to invite scholars from diverse discipline including law, anthropology, and Islamic studies, working in both Muslim-majority and Muslim-minority contexts, to present their works in our International Seminar on Sharia, Law, and Muslim Society (ISSLaMS).
